

SITEFINDER GPS

Privacy Policy

SiteFinder GPS is committed to protecting your privacy. We will collect, disclose and use any personal information provided to us in accordance with this policy.

Collection

Your personal information will only be collected if you voluntarily provide it to SiteFinder GPS through website, telephone, email or personal correspondence. This information may include your name, email address, mailing and/or billing address, telephone number, and credit card information. Certain information, such as an IP address, is always available to web servers whenever contacted by a user. This information is gathered only for normal operation of the website and is not otherwise used by SiteFinder GPS.

Use

The personal information you provide to SiteFinder GPS will only be used for purposes related to or required for the marketing, sale, customer service, administrative communication and use of GPS software applications and hardware (the “Services”) by SiteFinder GPS. By providing SiteFinder GPS with your personal information, you consent to the use of your personal information for these purposes. You may withdraw your consent to the use of your personal information in accordance with this privacy policy by contacting SiteFinder GPS directly through website, email, telephone or personal correspondence. In the event that you chose to withdraw your consent to the use of your personal information, SiteFinder GPS will destroy any of your personal information within its control.

SiteFinder GPS stores its physical and electronic records containing personal information in a secure location. SiteFinder GPS will take appropriate legal, organizational and technical actions to protect your personal information from loss and unauthorized use. Personal information will be retained by SiteFinder GPS no longer than reasonably required by SiteFinder GPS to provide the Services. At the end of this time period, SiteFinder GPS will destroy any physical or electronic records under its control.

You may, at any time, request to view, update, delete or change the personal information you have provided to SiteFinder GPS, by contacting SiteFinder GPS directly through website, email, telephone or personal correspondence. SiteFinder GPS may choose, in its sole discretion, to disallow the viewing of the personal information you have requested to view in the event that it will result in the disclosure of personal information regarding any other person to whom this privacy policy may apply.

Disclosure

Your personal information may be disclosed to any member of the SiteFinder GPS staff for the purposes of providing the Services. Limited personal information may be disclosed to third-party service providers who have been employed or otherwise engaged by SiteFinder GPS to perform functions on our behalf related to the Services. This may include providing products, fulfilling orders, delivery, providing marketing assistance, processing credit card payments and providing customer and administrative services. They will have limited access to the personal information you provide as may be reasonably necessary to provide to you the Services. SiteFinder GPS requires its service providers to properly safeguard your personal information and use it only for purposes related to the Services and no other purpose.

SiteFinder GPS' website may display internet-based advertising. SiteFinder GPS does not provide any personal information to advertisers or third party sites that display advertising. In the event that you chose to visit any third party sites, this privacy policy does not extend to information that you have provided to or is collected by third party sites.

In any case where the law requires disclosure of your personal information for a purpose other than outlined above, SiteFinder GPS will only do so in accordance with legislative or court ordered requirements.

If you have any questions, concerns, or requests with respect to this privacy policy or its implementation, please contact SiteFinder GPS @ PO Box 23101 Saskatoon, Saskatchewan S7J 2G2 or toll free @ 1-888-651-7410.
